Oh, the Mistletoe Bough.

Pm weary of dancing now, she cried, Here tarry awhite. I'll hide! I'll hide! And Lovell be sure thou'rt first to trace The clue to my secret hiding place Chorns-" Oh, the Mistletoe Bough."

Away she ran, and her friends began Each tower to search and each nook to sean, And young Lovell cried, Oh, where dost then hi I'm lonely without thee, my own sweet bride. Chorus-" Oh, the Mistleton Bough.

Chorus-" Oh, the Mistletoe Bough.

At length an old chest that had long been hid, Was found in the Castle—they raised the lid. And a skeleton form lay mouldering there In the bridal garb of a lady fair.
Oh, sad was her fate, when in sportive jest,
She hid from her lord in the old oakon chest; It closed with a spring, and her bridst bloom, Lay mouldering there in a living tomb.
